Latest Tailwinds

Derek Abramson, Editor

It is the end of another year folks, and the beginning of a New Year. I hope everybody has been getting some flying in between the wet days and the very nice days lately.

There has been a few new faces here at the field and certainly some new aircraft. There has been also some been a couple of near misses and an accident though. Please mind the prop.

Recently we had a member you sliced his hand up pretty bad; 27 stitches. We all have fun, but please be-careful around those spinning props. Also, I would like to remind everybody to please do not taxi past the hold short lines and fly past the safety fence. It may be tempting to cruise to the table, but accidents do happen.

Fly Safe!!
